

GRAND MASTER

Madrid, December 5, 2010

It is with great sadness that we have received news of a recent ceremony held in Orleans by a small group of members of the Order formerly loyal to Prince Charles Philippe d'Orleans. We had hoped with some confidence that his resignation would have opened further doors on the road to the full reintegration of our Order, but unfortunately the installation of another so-called Grand Master has dashed these hopes and sent out more wrong signals to the world. Moreover, our visible disunity continues to sap our energy, hinder our charitable work and lower the esteem in which our noble Order is held.

Having said this, we remain open to reconciliation in the spirit of Christian charity.

With Faith, Hope and Charity.

Atavis et Armis.
